Pricing Overview

One hour Intro/Clarity Call $179

- One hour call, only available to new clients.
- We still dig in deep, uncover pain points and blind spots. (It's amazing what can be discovered with someone who actually listens to you.)
- Often what my clients think is going on, is only the surface stuff or symptoms of underlying and dormant problems. We also get really clear about your Truth and intentions.

Two months Coaching | Healing Program $1600

- 8 calls (1 call per week). Unique coaching, mentoring, and healing work + Core emotional integration, individualized homework, call notes, call recordings, and unlimited text and email support.
- This is truly a transformation program, a life overhaul, from the inside out.
- We don't set goals or even talk that much about commitments. My goal is that you actually become your own coach and therapist by the end of our work.
- All programs are oriented so that you trust your own Truth, can stand for your worth, your deepest desires, and act from that trust in Self and Life without making lists, but instead with a deep abiding sense of self worth, self love, self acceptance, self knowing and self trust.

Add On Pack | 4 Calls $800

- Only available for returning clients. 4 calls that you have six months to use after initial 2 month program.
- This is for clients who need help with adjusting and calibration, because life will feel different, overwhelming and exciting at times. We literally are turning on all your navigation systems and reconnecting to parts of you that have been asleep.
- Add on packs are also good for clients who feel they need longer work: i.e. grief, trauma, learning disabilities.

Let's talk money. . .

- I know when I am spending money, I want to know two things: What am I getting? And where is it going? Good questions!
- The way I see it, you are getting a lifetime of cell altering, soul shifting, dynamic change. In other words, this a da-amn good investment in yourself.
- I'm not doing this to get rich, I am truly in this because if I forgot about it, my soul would shrivel up and die; because I feel compelled to share with you what I know about how transformation really works, and how to integrate it into the human experience.
- All dramatization aside, I'm human too and it's important to me that you and I both feel like we are getting something from our investment. I'm committed to helping you change your relationship to yourself and your life, so if after three calls you or I feel like this isn't a good match, we will cease and desist the remaining contract of time (5 calls) and you get the remainder of your money back minus a $50 dollar banking fee.

Trial | Scholarship Program (4 calls $600)

Four times a year, I offer a re-worked trial and scholarship program for committed applicants. Upon request, I send you a questionnaire with an essay prompt to fill out. This is so I can see how serious you are and what you want to change or accomplish in your life and relationships.

This is still the same amount of effort and work on both our parts. You still get the recorded calls, specialized homework, email support, individualized attention, and you still have to do the work.

If at the end of the four calls, you decide you are hooked and want to see out the remaining month because you really like the changes and shifts happening within you, then you just pay for the remaining 4 calls ($800) within 24 hours of our last session. Easy peasy right?

Payment Terms:

All payments are due in full. I will send you an invoice depending on your program length and/or after the scholarship essay has been received. Once I receive your payment through paypal, we will get started with scheduling your first appointment.

Cancellations | Rescheduling Policy:

This has never been an issue, but it goes without saying, I respect your time, and you respect my time. Unless there is some fire, blackout, major death or illness on my part, I am committed to showing up for you at our allotted time slot. I usually schedule in buffer time as well, because a 75 minute call isn't out of the ordinary. Then it's my responsibility to get the homework to you within 72 hours. During most programs it has been necessary to have a flex week. This means we take a week off in between certain weeks to see how you are doing on your own with the new tools and new connections you are making. It just makes sense. Because you will be changing, and we want to see what those changes are creating, doing, and bringing up in your life.

I can't wait to work together.

All Love,

Megyn Blanchard
